CAPS FOR LOVE NOTICE: Thanks to all who donated to our CAPS FOR LOVE campaign. The response has been overwhelming. At the present time, the couple from Paynesville who have been collecting, sorting, packing etc. these caps have more than they can transfer to Florida at this time. They have had no success in finding a local company (such as Home Depot) to collect and distribute them to the non-profit company that makes the furniture based out of Florida. We will DISCONTINUE COLLECTING here at St. Joseph's at this time until we hear from them. Meanwhile, pray that a large company will take over the collection and distribution locally for this worthwhile cause. Thank You, Marilyn Pastoral Council Elections will take place the weekend of November 21 and 22. We have two positions to be filled. The candidates are Chuck Sprenger, Sherry Larson, Carol Duke and Julie Berscheit.

2016 Calendars are available at all entrances. They are provided free of charge from the Central Minnesota Credit Union. Please express your appreciation when you are at the Credit Union.

The Book of Remembrance is in the Sanctuary for you to list your deceased loved ones. They will be remembered in all of our November Masses.

November 12 ♦ Mass for Vocations and Sealing of Holy Door – Bishop Donald Kettler will preside at a Mass for vocations at 7 p.m. at the Cathedral of St. Mary. The Mass also will include the Sealing of the Holy Door in preparation for the beginning of the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy.
